How we can help achieve community success?

The ASPIRE Network aims to build and connect local, regional, state, and community stakeholders to design and implement tobacco and cancer control activities for all. Some of our work includes:

- Providing equity centered capacity-building training and technical assistance to entities working with underserved or minority populations, including but not limited to AA and NH/PI populations traditionally served by APPEAL, as well as other marginalized communities of color, socioeconomic status, and intersectionality
- Facilitating opportunities for marginalized communities to engage in policy, systems, and environmental change activities
- Expanding and leveraging media and communications opportunities to create awareness about tobacco, cancer, and health eating-active living issues within our communities.
