

Breast Cancer in Asian and Pacific Islander Women

- BREAST CANCER SCREENING RATES IN ASIAN AMERICAN WOMEN ARE LOWER COMPARED TO OTHER POPULATIONS ¹
- BREAST CANCER IS THE SECOND LEADING CAUSE OF CANCER DEATHS IN ASIAN WOMEN ²
- SINCE 1992, BREAST CANCER INCIDENCE IN ASIAN AND PACIFIC ISLANDER WOMEN HAVE INCREASED 1.5% PER YEAR. ³

Between March 15 - June 16, 2020, there have been 285,000 missed mammograms in the U.S. ⁴

Screening Saves Lives

To find low-cost cancer screening programs near you, visit www.cdc.gov/cancer/nbccedp/screenings.htm

Sources:

1. American Cancer Society Breast Cancer Facts and Figures 2019-2020
2. American Cancer Society 2020 Facts and Figures
3. <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC6941147/>
4. Epic Health Research Network

Asian Pacific Partners for Empowerment, Advocacy, and Leadership

Learn more at appealforhealth.org

